

ONE KILLED AND OTHERS INJURED IN PRISON DELIVERY

Sensational Dash For Liberty Made By Joliet Prisoners Wednesday—Two Make Escape.

Joliet, Ill., Sept. 15. — One man was shot to death and two were wounded in a sensational dash for liberty at the Joliet penitentiary Wednesday in which Carl Steplina, said to be a well-known Chicago gunman, and Edward Thorpe, also of Chicago, made their escape.

Theodore Shiller was dropped by the rifle of a guard as he was scaling the wall after the quietest had escaped from their cells. John Koch, serving ten year to life, and George Williams, under the same sentence, were wounded seriously.

The break was engineered by Steplina, who has figured in several escapes from Chicago police in the past. He obtained his freedom by filing the bolts of the cell lock apart. Then he picked the locks of his companion's cells and the five made their way to the upper tier, where they cut a hole in the roof with tools stolen from the machine shops.

Escaping from the roof to the prison yard, the fleeing convicts were seen by prison guards, who opened fire.

Steplina was well known in Chicago police circles. Last winter he was shot by Horace Odell, chauffeur for John Alcock, first deputy superintendent of police, in an attempted holdup. He was captured and later escaped from the county hospital.

The convicts who escaped are Edward Thorpe and Carl Steplina, the latter said to be a well known Chicago gunman.

Steplina filed the lock off his cell door and then released the other two by picking the locks on their cells. The trio then cut a hole in the roof. Steplina was reported to have escaped on a passing freight train bound for Decatur.

When you come to Mike Brown's Big Sale, be sure to bring your Sears, Roebuck and Montgomery Ward catalogues, and compare prices. You'll find our prices have them skinned a block.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Lee and sons, returned Thursday to their home in West Third street, after an outing of several weeks in the county.

PEEBLES MARSHAL IS HELD TO GRAND JURY

Officer of Adams County Town Is Held For Grand Jury Investigation—Bond Placed at $2,000.

West Union, Ohio.—Marshal George Hoop who shot and killed Estel Hughes, of Rarden at Peebles last week appeared before Mayor W. H. Young at West Union last Thursday to answer to the charge of second degree murder which had been filed against him by Sherman Hughes, of Otway, father of the man killed.

Hoop entered a plea of not guilty, waived an examination of witnesses and was bound over to the Adams county grand jury in the sum of $2,000. He furnished bond with Dr. J. M. Wittemyer and A. G. Storer, of Peebles as sureties.

In its original story of this killing the Ledger gave the marshal's name as George Hook. This was due to a misunderstanding. The name is Hoop and is not therefore a member of the Hook family, former residents of this county.

PUBLIC SALE.

I will, on Thursday, Sept. 15, 1921, at 1:30 p. m. sell at public auction, on my premises located just outside the city of Maysville, Kentucky, on the Blue Run turnpike road, and just below the Standard Oil Company's building, my house and lot, two sets work harness, one set driving harness, one work horse, four plows, and other things too numerous to mention.

Terms of sale made known on day of sale. $&15 GEORGE EWAN.

RECORD CROWD HEARS BAND CONCERT WEDNESDAY.

Probably the largest crowd that has attended a street concert by the Boys' Band in a year was in Market street Wednesday evening to greet the youthful musicians and to show them that their home folks were proud of the record they had made on their recent trip. As the band marched into Market street from Third they received a rousing ovation. Manager Russell made a speech before the concert telling of the way they had been received in Columbus and Lexington and he was loudly applauded. The concert was a great showing that the members of the band had improved by their practice on their trips.

During the big sale, Mike Brown's store will close promptly at 5:30 each evening. 14Sept3t

LOCAL TEAM MAY FIGURE IN CHAMPION CLASS

New Pitcher and Third Baseman In Sunday's Line-up—Reds Want To Come Here Soon.

Several new players will appear in Sunday's game when the locals stack up against the Wiedemans at east end park Sunday in what may turn out to be a deciding factor for the Kentucky semi-pro championship.

Last Sunday the Wiedemans lost to the Lexington Red's by the close score of 5 to 3 and at that time both clubs laid claim to the championship of Kentucky and should Maysville win by a larger score it would give good ground on which they might lay their claim.

Kuhn will not be in the line-up Sunday and his place will be filled by Valoden formerly with Portsmouth and his performance here with that club several weeks ago would show him to be a high class infielder. In the Sunday game with Portsmouth he played third base and in the Monday game was shifted to short and there he made a good impression. He showed nothing out of the ordinary in stick work but the fact that he bats in clean-up place proves that he must have it in him.

Boskins on account of his side which has been worrying him all season has finally given down on him was forced to quit pitching for the remainder of the present season and Cooper a reliable pitcher of the Southern League with Little Rock will finish out the season and make his first appearance Sunday. The report that Slayback would not be back was laughed at by manager Reese. Boskins will play left field from now on.

Another offer has been received from H. J. Winterman acting as a booking agent for the Cincinnati Reds on their post season barn-storming tour and it is being considered. From the tone of the letter the Reds are very anxious to come and it is possible that they will come to terms today.

DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY ELECT OFFICERS.

The Daughters of the Confederacy met with Mrs. Chas. E. Martin Wednesday afternoon. The officers elected for the coming year are as follows: President—Mrs. Edwin Matthews. First Vice President — Mrs. L. G. Malby. Second Vice President — Mrs. Henrietta Fox. Secretary—Mrs. Ben Pickett. Treasurer—Mrs. D. C. Franklin. Historian—Mrs. Clarence Wood. Registrar—Mrs. Carolyn Russell.

MEDICAL INSPECTION OF SCHOOLS PROCEEDS.

The medical inspection of the city schools is progressing rapidly. Dr. Guitard and the city and county nurses examined the children in the Forest avenue school on Wednesday and found practically all of the children in splendid physical condition. Other schools will be inspected just as rapidly as possible.

BAND SERENADES MANAGER—RUSSELL'S MOTHER.

The Kentucky Cardinal band clad in their new Cardinal uniforms serenaded Mrs. M. C. Russell at her home in Third street Wednesday evening. Mrs. Russell is a great supporter of the band and as she is unable to attend their various concerts, she greatly enjoys and appreciates these serenades.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE IN COUNTY REPORTED GOOD.

County Superintendent of Schools G. H. Turnipseed reports that the attendance at the county schools this year is very good. The majority of the schools have reported and the school authorities are pleased at the outlook for a good year.

ADAMS COUNTY FAIR IS ON THIS WEEK.

The Adams County Fair is on at West Union this week and quite a number of people from the Ohio Valley are in attendance. Several Maysville people annually attend this fair, one of the best in Southern Ohio.

PRAYER MEETING TONIGHT.

Regular weekly prayer service will be held at the First Baptist church Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Members are urged to attend and the public is cordially invited.

There will be the usual prayer meeting at the First M. E. Church, South, on Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock. Let us have a good attendance.

Mrs. A. F. Stahl, of Kenton, Ohio, will arrive Thursday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed Parker, of West Second street.

FINANCIAL AID PLEDGED THE BURLEY GROWERS

Federal War Finance Corporation Assures Kentucky Delegation of Its Support In Financing Crop.

Washington, Sept. 15. — Financial support from the Federal Government in the marketing of the 1921 Burley tobacco crop, through the Burley Growers Co-operative Marketing Association, organization of which is now nearly completed, was definitely assured Wednesday, following several conferences between representatives of the preliminary committee of burley growers and Treasury Department officials.

Two important results obtained from the conferences, which, according to the committee representatives, guarantee the successful handling of the crop by the association, are:

First, definite assurance given by the War Finance Corporation that if the burley growers organize under the proposed co-operative marketing plan, the corporation will give any application made by the association the same consideration that already has been given to similar organizations of cotton growers, advances to which have been in excess of 50 per cent. of the value of the crop.

Second, presentation to the Federal Reserve Board of a request for a ruling that growers' drafts on the association, accompanied by weight tickets, shall be classed as agricultural paper, and indications of the officials that a favorable reply may be expected, which would entitle such paper to six months credit, rather than the three months allowed commercial paper.

ESTABLISHING NEWSPAPERS.

Mr. Frank S. Newell, former Maysville man who has been here on a visit with his mother, Mrs. Jennie Newell, of Fourth street, leaves Thursday afternoon for his home at Norfolk, Va. Mr. Newell has been connected for the past several years with the Scripps-McLean League of newspapers and has been establishing new papers throughout the South. Mr. Newell will this fall and winter be in the East where several new papers will be established by this large corporation. Mr. Newell's many local friends will be very glad to know of his splendid success in the newspaper business.

SEVERAL LOCAL STUDENTS WILL ENTER COLLEGE.

Several members of the 1921 class of the Maysville High School will enter college this year and these as well as others in the city who have heretofore been attending college, are now making their arrangements to enter the various Kentucky institutions within the next two weeks. Several Kentucky colleges open on next Monday.

THIS DON'T LOOK LIKE HARD TIMES HERE.

In another part of this issue will be found the statements of the Farmers & Traders Bank and the Bank of Maysville. Both of these statements show these financial institutions in splendid condition and do not bespeak hard times for this section of the country. Maysville's financial institutions are always in good condition.

GIRL SWALLOWS HAIRPIN.

Lancaster, Ohio, Sept. 15. — Babe Cline, 13 years old, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Cline, may have to undergo an operation to remove a hairpin, which she accidentally swallowed Sunday while combing her hair. She was holding several hairpins in her mouth.

Miss Mary Finch, after a sojourn of several weeks at French Lick Springs, Ind., has returned to her home in East Third street.

FINE COMPLIMENT PAID OUR BAND BY FAIR SECRETARY

Secretary of Blue Grass Fair Says Band Is One of the Best Features the Fair Has Ever Had.

Colonel J. Barbour Russell has just received this letter from Ken Walker, Secretary of the Blue Grass Fair:

"I am enclosing you check in full covering the contract for the Boys' Band during our fair last week. I want to take this occasion to thank you, Mr. Barnard, and every individual member of the band for the entertainment they provided the hosts of guests assembled during our week. I regard this contract as an entertainment feature one of the best the Blue Grass Fair has ever entered into, and not only was I not disappointed but most agreeably surprised that boys of this age could be so efficient. The younger band with which you entertained the crowd on Saturday is the most remarkable aggregation for a six months old that I have ever heard. I also wish to thank you for your enthusiastic co-operation from the date the contract was signed up to the last place was rendered on Saturday night. This was worth the price of the contract."

WHY DO WE HAVE TO SUFFER THIS?

The carnival company which is holding forth in the east end each evening sends an alleged band through the city in a street car. This aggregation makes the most hideous of noises and has become a public nuisance. If the band is a fair sample of the carnival, it must be a "bear cat."

KEHUE AT WEST UNION TODAY.

Hon. James N. Kehue is at West Union, Ohio, Thursday to address the tobacco growers of Adams county in the interest of the Cooperative Tobacco marketing plan.

Mr. Frank S. Newell who has been the guest of his mother, Mrs. Jennie Newell, left Thursday for Norfolk, Va. He was accompanied by his daughter who will enter school in the above city.

Misses Julia Cox and Julia Dillon, who have been delightful guests in the city for the past two months, left Thursday for their home in East Orange, N. J.

BANK OFFICIAL IS KILLED BY BANDIT

Young Man Kills Bank Official While At Desk and Is Captured Within Short Time.

Dodge Center, Minn., Sept. 15.—D. T. Rounseville, Vice President of the First National Bank of Dodge Center, was shot and killed instantly in the bank late Wednesday by a man presumed to be a robber. A posse was formed immediately and the assassin was captured just outside of town.

Rounseville was alone in the bank when the youth entered. No one knows what ensued. In the county jail at Owatona the prisoner steadfastly refused to talk. He did not steal anything from the bank, apparently fleeing immediately after the shooting.

He was seen running from the building, shouting: "I shot him! I shot him!"

A short pursuit ended in his capture. He refused to answer questions and his identity has not been established.

FOUR WITNESSES HEARD IN WILL CASE TODAY.

Mrs. C. B. Hollstein, Mrs. McAtee Case and Messrs. W. J. Caplinger and C. S. Kirk were the witnesses heard in the Sphar will case Thursday. Court was in session until 1 o'clock this afternoon when it adjourned until Friday morning. The contestants have several more witnesses to introduce before they have finished their side of the case.

OWENS SALE ATTRACTS MANY.

The sale of the Basil Owens property in the county which is being held Thursday has attracted much attention. Because of the number of tracts, the sale moved slowly and was not completed at 2:45. Bids on the home place upon which is one of the most comfortable country homes in northern Kentucky had reached $300 per acre at that time.

FOXWORTHY—PERRINE.

Mr. Albert Perrine, of Mt. Carmel, and Miss Hattie W. Foxworthy, of Exchange, W. Va., were married here Thursday morning by Rev. John Mulen, pastor of the Christian church.

LABOR SECRETARY SEES REVIVAL IN BUSINESS COMING

Half Million Dollars To Be Spent By States, Counties and Cities in Public Works, Which Will Employ Many Persons.

Washington, Sept. 15. — Those who are disturbed over the 5,735,000 unemployed of today overlook the fact that in 1914 there were 7,000,000 out of work, a larger percentage of whom were men and actual breadwinners than among the present unemployed, Secretary of Labor Davis said today in a statement.

Declaring that the country has just passed through a period when every effort was made to induce women and others who had not worked for wages or salaries before to "work and save starving Europe," Mr. Davis said present unemployment figures include great numbers of persons upon whose earnings no one actually is dependent.

"While we have our unemployed, let us not forget the 12,000,000 who are still at work," the statement said. "A further encouraging fact is that $500,000,000 is now available about the country in the form of bonds already issued or appropriated by the state, county and municipal governments for public works. Undoubtedly this will be organized intelligently."

Positive signs of business recovery have been furnished by the commissioner of labor statistics, Secretary Davis declared, adding:

Some of these signs have an aspect of their own. I put them out for others to interpret as they please. But one must have his head much in the air these days not to notice the growing prevalence of silk bosomy and the use of silks in general.

"The statement has been constantly made in news and editorial columns of the newspapers that the Department of Labor has reported 5,735,000 men as being out of work. The Department of Labor has reported no such thing. It did report that according to the best estimate that could be made there are 5,735,000 fewer men, women and children on the payrolls than there were in March, 1920. There is a difference with a distinction. It is a very different matter from saying that there are 5,735,000 men unemployed."

THE GREATEST CYNIC.

Cynicism is trying to come back into style. It's born of the fashion for epigrams. You find it in the new plays, the latest novels, the movie subtitles—even occasionally in the Congressional Record.

But today's cynics are tyros compared with Sir Henry Wotton, who, back in the 80's, enunciated these cynical epigrams and paradoxes:

"The one charm of marriage is that it makes a life of deception absolutely necessary for both parties."

"Being natural is simply a pose, and the most irritating pose I know."

"Conscience and cowardice are really the same things. Conscience is the trade-name of the firm."

"Those who are faithful know only the trivial side of love; it is the faithless who know love's tragedies."

"The only way to get rid of a temptation is to yield to it."

"The things one feels certain about are never true."

The cynic sacrifices sincerity to smartness. He mistakes the flash of his wit for the sun-glow of truth.

"Nothing is ever quite true," said Lord Henry. "Modern morality consists in accepting the standard of one's age."

Lord Henry—can't you place him? Well, he was responsible for the moral ruin and suicide of Dorian Gray, the heartbreak and self-destruction of the youthful actress Sylvia Vane, the murder of the artist Basil Hallward, the accidental shooting of James Vane, and more.

How did Lord Henry accomplish this? By words. "Mere words! How terrible they were! How clear, and vivid, and cruel! One could not escape from them. And yet what a subtle magic there was in them! Mere words! Was there anything so real as words?"

Cynicism is mostly immoral; epigrams are mostly lies.

The cynic with his epigrams tries to cheat the truth. He always cheats himself; sometimes he cheats others.

Immortality? Well, Sir Henry Wotton—the world's greatest cynic—was the character, the mouthpiece of Oscar Wilde in his novel, "The Picture of Dorian Gray." The cynicisms you've read above are the cynicisms of Wilde, the English author whose unimpeachable crimes brought him to a felon's cell.

Lies? Test his rapier-like word-thrusts with the test of common sense.

Is nothing ever quite true? Your father's protection, your mother's love, your loyalty to your school, your devotion to your religion, your friendship?

Scratch a cynic and you'll find either a saphead or a sorehead!

SCHOOLS AND GOVERNMENT.

At the Third Congress of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, which met in Vienna in July, problems of education held an important place in the discussion.

The menace of mis-education received particular emphasis. Women delegates from Germany frankly attributed the Great War to their own former state monopoly of education with its years of emphasis upon militarism and conquest. On the other hand, Austrian delegates were rejoicing and hopeful because in their country the schools have just been transferred from ecclesiastical domination to a secularized state and city control. Americans at the conference were largely silent on this subject, but greatly interested because of the proposed federal department of education for this country.

A speaker from Paris summed up the whole problem of school control and public responsibility in the question, "If the self-governing nations cannot control their schools, in the interest of the people and of the future peace of the world, what is the basis of our hope that we can control any part of our government?"

However wide apart may seem rooms full of school children and a nation's government, they are really closely related. What the latter will be in the future depends almost wholly on what the former is in the present. In this light the deficiencies and inefficiencies of our own school system are seen in their full seriousness. But just as government reforms cannot be made effective unless there is intelligent public will back of them, the education in our public schools will advance no farther than that same intelligent public will takes them.

CANADIAN BOOZE LID.

Americans who have been going over the border into Quebec and either consuming or carting away large quantities of liquor will not have such a good time from now on. Hereafter the Quebec liquor commission will sell liquor to American visitors to the province only if the American government permits the sale.

It is not stated just what procedure will be necessary to get a permit from the government, though it is indicated that the would-be purchaser must be provided with a certificate of eligibility. There are some fine points as to the rights of the individual involved, too, but the plan probably can be worked out. The necessity for obtaining a permit should help to prevent the buying of liquor in undue amounts, put a check upon unscrupulous revels within Canadian borders, and interfere to some degree with the merry pastime of bootlegging.

That Quebec has been driven to such measures is a disgrace to the United States. Canada has long resented the stew-pot for inebriates from this side of the border, and it is with good reason that she plans to make their path as difficult as possible.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington. — Commenting on the contest now being waged against radical labor leaders, the Republican Publicity Association, through its president, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., says:

"In a recent address at Atlantic City Mr. Gompers said in part, 'It is not fair, it is not wise, to attempt to crush the labor movement, so thoroughly humanitarian, so thoroughly patriotic, so willing to give service — to attempt to crush that movement between the upper millstone of employers' antagonism and misrepresentation and the lower millstone of revolution and socialism.'"

"All of which has a plausible sound, but needs analysis."

"In the first place, there is no effort to crush labor or any movement of labor that is humanitarian, patriotic and willing to give service. The laborers of the country, taken as a whole, are humanitarian, patriotic, and willing to give service. So far as we know, no one ever asserted the contrary. Mr. Gompers, therefore, is setting up a straw bogey in order to assume a spectacular role in knocking it down. He leaves the inference that all the effort to check the influence of certain radical labor leaders is an attack upon the humanitarian, patriotic and faithful workers of the country. No one will be deceived."

"There are certain facts of which the people of this country are well aware. Among these facts are the following: Many labor leaders foment trouble and make unjust claims in behalf of labor in order to strengthen themselves with the labor organizations. During the war many labor leaders encouraged workmen to shirk on their jobs, particularly in ship yards and on government work. These leaders are today striving to secure the perpetuation of working rules which require the rest of the country to pay for service rendered or to pay exorbitant rate for services rendered outside of regular working hours. The leaders who do these things are not actuated by humanitarian or patriotic motives. They are not giving service in any true sense."

"The contest that is now being waged in this country is not against the labor movement — not against humanitarian purposes — not antagonistic to patriotism. It is aimed solely at those radical labor leaders who would assume a dictatorship over industry and who, in order to gain that dictatorship, would threaten to tie up the transportation system regardless of the suffering and loss of property and life that would ensue."

"Mr. Gompers seems to assume that what he calls the labor movement is the only humanitarian, patriotic and serving movement in the United States. He overlooks the farmers who were unable to get help to care for their crops for a period of about three years. He overlooks the hundreds of thousands of small householders who are unable to get a repair job done at a reasonable price if radical labor leaders are permitted to fix the scale and the rules of work. He overlooks the producers and consumers who pay the cost of transportation. All these are just as humanitarian, patriotic and willing to serve as are the 4,000,000 for whom Mr. Gompers assumes to speak. If there is any crushing done, it will be done by the 100,000,000, and it is safe to assert that they will not use their ultimate power to impose unjust terms upon the 4,000,000."

"All that the 100,000,000 ask is a square deal, and they will not be diverted from their purpose by talk about crushing humanitarian and patriotic movements. Every just demand of labor will be upheld, but there will be no permanent dictatorship by radicals who happen to be in positions of power."

RETROACTIVE TAX REPEAL REJECTED

Senate Finance Committee Approves Excess Levy Up to Next January 1.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Corporations would be required to pay excess profits taxes for another year under a decision today of the Senate Finance Committee, which finally approved the provisions in the House bill repealing these taxes as of next January 1, instead of last January 1 as recommended by Secretary A. W. Mellon.

The committee also inserted a provision in the House measure repealing the capital stock tax, effective next year, and adopted an amendment increasing the corporation income tax from 10 to 15 per cent. instead of 12½ per cent. effective January 1, 1922.

These represented the major decisions reached today at two sessions, although it was said officially that the committee virtually had decided to amend the House bill so as to continue the tax on express packages and oil transported by pipe lines. Whether any portion of the taxes on the transportation of freight and passengers will be retained after next January 1, will depend, Chairman Boies Penrose said, upon a report to be made tomorrow by the treasury as to the savings in expenditures expected to be made this fiscal year by the various government departments.

POSTCARD DELIVERED AFTER TWO YEARS' DELAY.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 13. — Two years ago Mayor T. C. Bradley mailed a souvenir postcard at West Baden, Ind., and addressed to City Commissioner Wood G. Dunlap, congratulating him on being re-elected. This was in November, 1919. Yesterday the postcard was delivered to Mr. Dunlap here. How the card became lost and where it is not known.

BEGGAR, ANGEL TO POOR, DIES, LEAVING $100,000.

Chicago, Sept. 13. — "French Sal," 84 years old, who died yesterday in a dreary little attic, today was found to have $100,000 in stocks hidden in her room.

For years she begged from the well-to-do near her home and dispensed philanthropy to the poor.

Her identity is not known. Shelbyville — Henry Clay Mclear, 75, Civil War veteran, died at the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley. Mr. Mclear was in General Morgan's command. For a number of years he was a traveling salesman, representing Louisville houses.

HOW WOMEN AVOID SURGICAL OPERATIONS

Some Are Extremely Necessary, Others May Not Be

Every Woman Should Give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Trial First

Chicago, Ill. — "I was in bed with a female trouble and inflammation and had four doctors but none of them did me any good. They all said I would have to have an operation. A druggist's wife told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took 22 bottles, never missing a dose and at the end of that time I was perfectly well. I have never had occasion to take it again as I have been so well. I have a six room flat and do all my work. My two sisters are taking the Compound upon my recommendation and you may publish my letter. It is the gospel truth and I will write to any one who wants a personal letter." — Mrs. E. H. HAYDOCK, 6824 St. Lawrence Ave., Chicago, Ill.

A Vermont woman adds her testimony to the long line of those fortunate women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Burlington, Vt. — "I suffered with female trouble, and had a number of doctors who said that I would never be any better until I had an operation. I was so bad I could hardly walk across the floor and could not do a thing. My sister-in-law induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it certainly has helped me wonderfully. I keep house and do my work and have a small child. I have recommended Vegetable Compound to a number of my friends and you may publish my testimonial." — Mrs. H. R. SHARON, Apple Tree Point Farm, Burlington, Vt.

In hospitals are many women who are there for surgical operations, and there is nothing a woman dreads more than the thought of an operation, and the long weary months of recovery and restoration to strength if it is successful. It is very true that female troubles may through neglect reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but most of the commoner ailments of women are not the surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements, tumors or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same. When disturbing ailments first appear take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles. In fact, many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised by attending physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Allments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

New York Letter

New York. — The Impressionistic and Post-Impressionistic exhibition of paintings at the Metropolitan Museum of Art is coming to a close. And we are still alive and well. But New York art circles will probably never be the same again. They have been pretty well shredded if not completely torn asunder under the pressure of disagreeing opinions regarding slant-faced ladies and whole canvasses of planes and angles. From "Imbecillie" to "degraded efforts of sharp business men" that diatribes have been hurled, while an equally emphatic group declare that "Art has at last waked from the somnolence of the ages" through the medium of these paintings of Matisse, Picasso, and the rest of them. Art or not art, there is one thing certain, it is impossible to tell what they are pictures of. Joseph Pennell, artist and author, and John Quinn, lawyer and art patron, are the leaders of the opposing forces which are carrying on the battle, and the rise and fall of empires has never called forth more excited eloquence than the right or wrong of post-impressionistic art is getting.

The tragedy of being blind is being penetrated with more gleams of light. Insisting that able-bodied sightless persons should not and need not be a charge on the community in which they live, Dr. Schuyler Skates Wheeler, of this city, one of the leading engineers of the country, has demonstrated that they are well able to earn their own livings in the electrical industry. As president of the Crocker-Wheeler Company, electrical machinery manufacturers of Amper, N. J., he has been able to test his theories and today has several scores of sightless men and women working regularly in his plant. They are making dynamos and motors and are successfully carrying out over 20 operations. This proof that they can earn their own livings if given a chance has attracted wide interest and plans are being made greatly to extend the activities of the "Double Duty Finger Guild," as this "union" of blind electrical work-

In "Beating the Game," a new film just shown here, Tom Moore exercises the fascination of his smile and at the same time gives you the thrill and suspense of a crook play. Tom Moore plays the part of the youthful and likeable "Fancy Charlie," who is introduced at the practice of his profession — safe-opening. He is staked by an apparent co-worker in that occupation to go to a small town and by establishing a reputation for honesty in making himself as popular as it is evident he can do and put himself in a position to get away with a big haul instead of a lit of little ones. He goes; the town learns to call him "Honest John" Smith; and then he discovers that the only thing needed to make him like being honest was for him to try it once; and that whether

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Mayville. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof.

Jno. T. Bramel, retired bookkeeper, 108 West Front street, Mayville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great advantage to me and I contribute fourteen years of my life to them. It was some years ago that I found I had kidney trouble and suffered severely with it. After a long course of Doan's Kidney Pills I became well and had no trouble for many years. Just recently I noticed my kidneys were again out of order and my system was generally weak. I knew it was a return of the trouble. I did not lose any time in getting a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they have given me the same good results and I consider them a wonderful remedy." (Statement given November 15, 1916.)

On November 22, 1920, Mr. Bramel said: "I couldn't recommend a better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills after the benefit they were to me when I was about down and out with the worst form of kidney trouble. I gave a statement many years ago regarding the merit of this wonderful remedy. My cure has been a lasting one." Price 60 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bramel had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

he liked it or not, he can't betray people who have trusted him. He is put to a pretty hard test but he doesn't break under it. The love story in the play is more or less subordinated but it is appealing and it has an essential place in the development of "Fancy Charlie" into "Honest John." In fact as well as in name. Personally, it would be to me a tremendous waste to put Tom Moore onto the screen without having a love story there, too. Hazel Daly plays the part of Nellie Brown, the heroine, and DeWitt Jennings and Nick Gogley deserve special mention in their supporting cast.

When you read the financial news, you get to feeling as though the bubble of golden prosperity has taken on a tinge of sober tan, instead; but when you read the real estate news—! People are continuing to live in more and still more expensive places and every few weeks plans are recorded for an apartment house where the rentals will be higher by the year than is used to cost to build a Union station. Fifth avenue and 73rd street is the location of one which has just been started, to cost $750,000 in the building — just next door to another recently completed apartment house where on can rent a nice, comfortable whole floor for $30,000 a year. No, we (speaking not at all personally) are not going completely broke yet.

LUCY JEANNE PRICE

FALL PLOWING WILL KILL INSECT PESTS.

Many injurious insect pests that hibernate in the soil or rubbish about the farm or garden and escape death from insecticides because of their large numbers or particular methods of attacking plants may be controlled most easily by deep fall plowing according to recommendations made by entomologists at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station to farmers of the state. Wire worms, cut worms, white grubs, or the young of June beetles, tobacco worms, army worms, plant bugs, grasshoppers, corn web-worms, corn ear-worms, clover leaf beetles, and a large number of small leaf hoppers are the particular ones which suffer from being exposed to the weather by plowing. According to the entomologists a study of these insects has shown that until some specific remedy is discovered for each one of them farmers will have to depend in a large degree on plowing, clean culture, crop rotation, and other practices as a means of protection. Plowing is perhaps the most important of these and can be followed profitably in Kentucky because of the periods of open weather during the fall and winter. Kentucky farmers have never used this method of control to the best advantage, the entomologists say.

Some of these insects, such as the wire worm, work only on roots where sprays will not reach them. Others live within the stems of the plants where they are equally exempt from either poisons or contact insecticides.

eldes, while still others, like the cut worms and chinch bugs, work among the weeds and grasses where they escape the observation of the farmer. Flea beetles live over the winter on nightshades. Smart weed, rag weed, purslane, foxtail and others harbor the corn root aphid. Plant bugs hibernate in all kinds of weeds and grasses. Old squash vines contain pupae of the squash borer and cabbage stocks furnish a hiding place for the cabbage house and carry the eggs of this insect through the winter. Because of these facts it is important to destroy all crop remnants, burn fence rows and pick up loose materials that will furnish hiding places for the insects.

Where it is necessary to plow in order to destroy the insects this should be done deeply in order to bury many of the insects so that they are unable to get out in the spring and expose others to winter weather and natural enemies. Insects of this kind, like the tobacco worm, lying in their earthen cases go through the winter safe against frost much the same as the buried potato does because the change from freezing to thawing comes gradually. For this reason throwing them to the surface by plowing destroys many of them since they are subjected to sudden changes.

YOUNGER ALEXANDER DEAD.

Younger Alexander, one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Fayette county, died Wednesday night at 10 o'clock at his home on the Paris pike, near Lexington. He was 52 years old.

Mr. Alexander was born in New Liberty, Owen county, and came to Lexington about 1902. He became interested in the building of electric traction roads and as president of a company he caused the construction of the road to Georgetown and Paris, which were operated by him and his associates for a number of years.

Mr. Alexander was well known here, having been one of the organizers of the Brooksville & Wellsburg Railroad.

ARBUCKLE EXPECTED TO BE RELEASED ON BAIL.

San Francisco, Sept. 15. — Roscoe Arbuckle, charged with causing the death of beautiful Virginia Rappe, probably will be at liberty on bail by tonight.

Mathew Brady, district attorney, virtually has decided to prosecute Arbuckle on a charge of manslaughter, rather than murder.

This is a heinous offense and Arbuckle's attorneys are ready to supply $15,000 bail today. If this is accepted, Arbuckle will start for Los Angeles at once and go into seclusion.

The P. T. A. of the Eastland school will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The average monthly pay of industrial workers in the United States is $112.

SENSATIONAL RACES.

The program for Kentucky's Great Trots at Lexington, October 3-13, has been so arranged that at least one sensational race each day looks certain. The Futurity ($7,000) for 2-year-old trotters and the great race for the Walnut Hall Cup ($3,000 and the Cup), for all ages, are the attractions for the first day. The Kentucky Futurity ($14,000), in which every great 3-year-old trotter in America is eligible to start, is set for Tuesday, October 4; among the four excellent races for Wednesday is The Cumberland ($2,000), which certain to bring together a wonderful field of fast pacers; then on Thursday, October 6, we shall see the great Transylvania ($5,000), always the best all-age race of its year and this year better than ever, for it is about certain that amongst the starters will be Greyworthy 2:02½, Sister Bertha 2:02½, Periscope 2:03½, The Toddler 2:03½, Millie Irwin 2:03½, Jeannette Rankin 2:04½, Princess Etawah 2:04½, Kilo Watt 2:05 and Emma Harvester 2:05½, every one a stake winner this year. No field like it was ever gotten together. The Board of Commerce and The Lexington come on Friday; and on Saturday we shall again see the great 3-year-olds battle for The Kentucky.

The second week's card has the great race, The Phoenix Hotel Prize ($3,000 and Cup) for the fast pacers on Monday; The Castleton ($4,000 and Cup), another Transylvania is set for Tuesday; The Ashland, which promises a wonderful race, comes on Wednesday; and on Thursday, October 13, some of the very best races of the meeting have been programmed, the 2:01 pace and the 2:05 trot amongst them.
